

Dear Jannie, Urshula, Daniel, Malusi, Jerry and Robert

We blinked and it was all over.

Thank you seems insufficient for the massive role that BTS played in ensuring a seamless GOH Talent Tour.

Without a doubt, there was nobody better equipped to run the safety and security on this tour.

It was wonderful to see the bond that formed between Daniel, Malusi and FW and the implicit trust he had in you.

Jerry, thank you for being so patient and kind to the Whitaker family. They were so appreciative of you.

Massive thanks to Jannie and Urshula who orchestrated so much more than they needed to from the background. You were both amazing and I am grateful for all your help, heads-ups and assistance.

Looking forward to the next one!

Kind regards
Karen & the Openfield Team
